as you can get

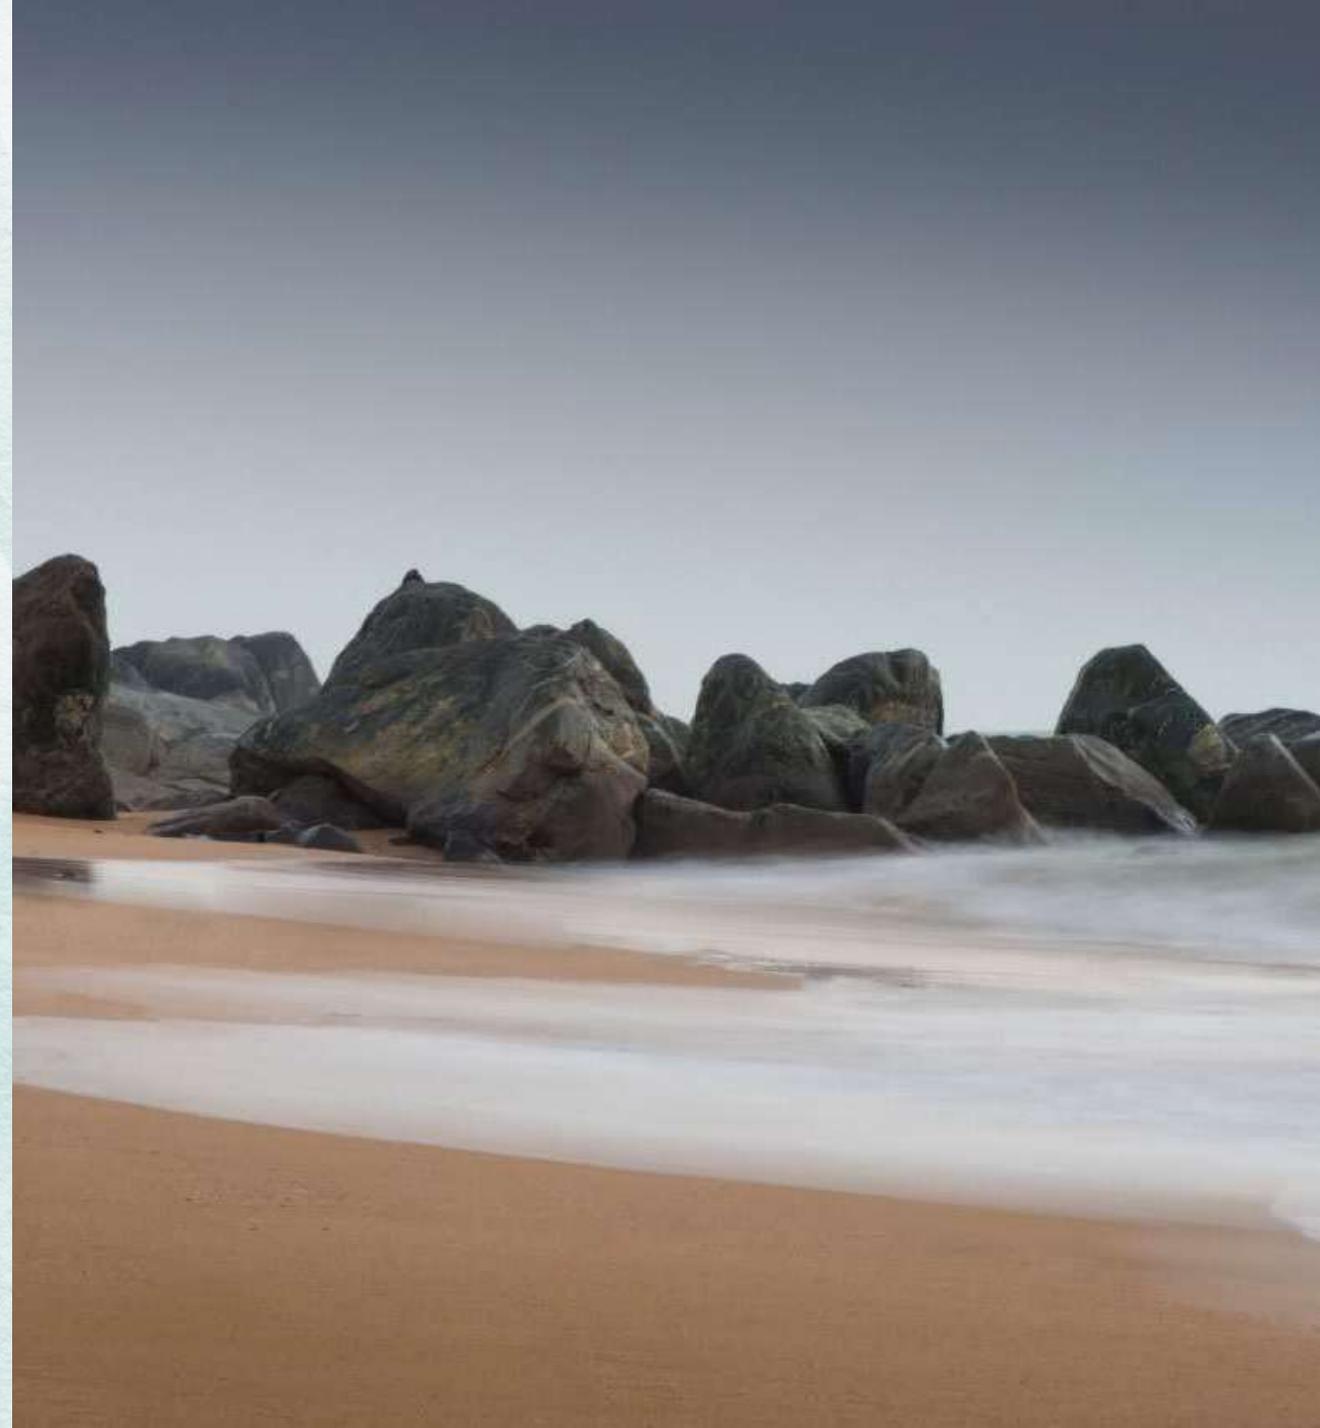

About Us

Located on the edge of a hillock overlooking the pristine and exclusive Honey Beach and the vast Arabian Sea in Karnataka, Red Earth Gokarna is a wellness destination with 20 well-appointed cottages set amidst the forested hills of the Western Ghats and the serene beaches.

We are a pet-friendly resort, open to all our four legged friends with plenty of space for you to explore on the many treks including the popular one to Belambar Beach just as the hills taper.

Located midway to Ankola from Gokarna, nature, temples, and tranquillity blend into one sweet symphony here.

Unwind, refresh, and heal, armed with the ancient wisdom of Hatha and Ashtanga Yoga.

About Gokarna

Gokarna, at its very heart, is idyllic and laid-back. Soft, unblemished sands laze on its Konkan coast while lively rivers like Kalli, Sharavathi, Gangavalli and Aghanashini hurtle from the Western Ghats, meander and find their way home to the Arabian Sea.

Quaint villages, temples and a sparse population add to Gokarna's charm.

Responsible Tourism

The Red Earth family strongly endorses the model of sustainable, responsible tourism across all our properties. At Gokarna, we work with the indigenous Siddhi, Halakki Gowdas and the local fishing community to ensure that ecology and community take precedence in all our efforts.

Local Community

A majority of the people working in Red Earth Gokarna are from the local tribal and fishing communities who are being trained in the subtler nuances of hospitality.

We buy local produce from the Halakki Gowdas and seafood from the fishing community, prioritising the local economy.

Resource Preservation and Reduced Carbon Footprint

With Red Earth Gokarna, we have changed the narrative from creating eco-friendly properties to transforming an existing, unsustainable property into one, considerably reducing our resource consumption.

We buy fresh, local vegetables, grains and seafood to reduce packaging and transport emissions.

Natural stones like laterite are used for the construction of the cottages.

Energy Conservation

Energy-efficient LED bulbs are used throughout the property.

Land Preservation

Plastic bags and water bottles are not encouraged within the resort.

Recycling Waste

All dry waste is segregated and composted.
